Profile

As a junior Prop maker, I am always enthusiastic to learn everything about a new potential skill and improve myself. I really love learning new things and will ask any question, no matter how stupid, to make sure that I completely understand whatever I am being told.

I pride myself in working very clean and efficiently, always giving back tools that I borrow, and always keeping the workspace clean and safe.

I take any work very seriously and want to produce the best possible outcome, thus I work really hard and want to make sure everything works and looks the way it should.

I may not have the most experience under my belt, but I for sure will make up for it with hard work, enthusiasm and a constant willingness to learn and improve.
